

National Commission for Human Development Floods in Pakistan-2010

Foreword:

Having gone through the worst floods since 1929, which have devastated lives of more than 22 million people in Pakistan, we are now in the process of recovering and rehabilitating lives of those who have lost their homes, livestock and standing crops. After completion of the immediate evacuation and relief, NCHD shall now assist in the process of reconstruction, overcoming the risks along the way; potential for water borne diseases is high amongst flood victims, particularly 3.4 million children, who are critically prone to gastro, diarrhea and malnutrition.

National Commission for Human Development (NCHD) is working in 142 districts in the four provinces, AJK, Gilgit Baltistan, FATA and FRs (less South and North Waziristan) in line with its mandate to support the government in Universal Primary Education (UPE) and Adult Literacy. Through its network, it is working in close coordination with district administration and other stake holders, in flood relief operations in all the flood affected districts of Pakistan. NCHD has had the experience of relief operations in the past during the devastating earth quake of October, 2005, in Mansehra, Balakot and Muzaffarabad. Subsequently, it helped IDPs during the catastrophe in Swat in the areas of Mardan, Charsadda and Swabi, and then more recently it supported relief operations in Atta Abad lake disaster in Gilgit-Baltistan.

NCHD has unremittingly been engaged to support the district governments in their effort to provide relief to the people of flood affected areas of Pakistan. Since 30th July 2010, when flood hit Charsadda and Nowshera in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, NCHD extended its relief operations in all the flood affected districts. It has been engaged in emergency rescue, provision of shelter, food, water and emergency medical care for the flood affected people.

NCHD, being a public private partnership model, has through its board of Directors of Pakistan Human Development Fund (PHDF), PHDF-UK and American Fund for Human Development (AFHD) secured a pledge of over Rs. 136.3 million to support rescue and relief operations, out of which Rs. 104.9 million had already been received. Although the donor agencies are quite mobilized and geared up by this hour, still there remains a lot to be done in this context, and NCHD shall guard these interests to its fullest and cover the existing gaps in service delivery.

Flood Devastation:

NCHD Weekly Flood Activity Report has been covering the details of the relief work carried out comprehensively for perusal. Over 70 districts have been affected by floods throughout the country.

Major damages include loss of life, destruction of roads and bridges, telecommunications, water and sanitation facilities, administrative infrastructure, houses, markets, shops, land and standing crops, leaving more than 7 million families homeless.

Summary of rescue and relief activities carried out by NCHD since initiation of these floods has been issued separately, while the actions related to final rehabilitation and reconstruction shall stay underway. It is, in fact, a gigantic task and a great challenge not only for Pakistan but for the whole world community.
